On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Leeds United, who have had an eventful week—to say the least.

They won through to the third round of the League Cup on Monday, when they beat West Bromwich Albion 1-0 at Maine Road—then a couple of days later they lost manager Jock Stein.

He left Elland Road to take over as manager of Scotland in place of Ally MacLeod.

We also have had the sort of week we could do without.

On Saturday we lost 3-0 at Liverpool and for once, after the game, I was speechless.

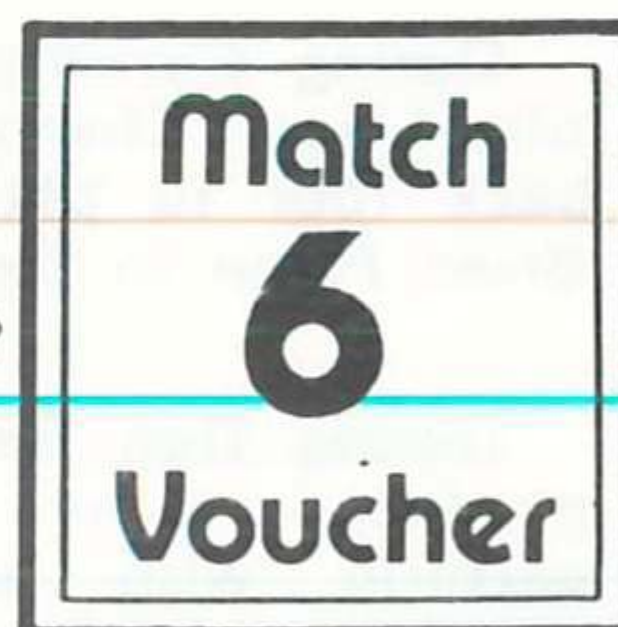

We went into the League Cup at Exeter without Jim McDonagh, Peter Nicholson and Paul Jones—all injured. And we lost 2-1 in the West Country.

On the night our attitude was right for a First Division club playing against one from the Third Division, but we just didn't do it.

The legacy from the game, apart from the dismissal of Neil Whatmore, was an injury to Brian Smith, who received a leg strain, but there was a bonus, Peter Reid played for the last part of the game—his first outing after injuring a knee in a pre-season game.

In spite of that our injury situation is still causing concern, but I hope it won't be long before we see an improvement in this department.

Welcome to...

Jock Stein won everything in just over 12 years as manager of Celtic — the European Cup, nine League Championships and 14 domestic Cup finals — and it was felt that he would join the board and go into semi-retirement when he resigned earlier this year.

But ambitious Leeds persuaded him to take over their vacant managerial chair and he has been spending the opening weeks of the season surveying the scene at Elland Road.

Mr. Stein has not seen fit to make any dramatic changes from the team he inherited from Jimmy Armfield. The only major summer signing — John Hawley from Hull for £80,000 — had been completed before his appointment.

Hawley, in fact, lost his place after the opening match of the season, later being nominated as substitute, so the Leeds attack has had the familiar look of Carl Harris, Ray Hankin, Peter Lorimer and Arthur Graham in recent weeks.

Lorimer had reverted to a midfield role for some while but was brought back as an attacker by Mr. Stein who no doubt is looking to the Scot's lethal shooting to increase the club's scoring output.

For several weeks Leeds were without the explosive talents of Tony Currie, injured, in midfield and, with a 4-2-4 line-up, he has been particularly missed. Currie is one of the most exciting talents in English football and is currently at the peak of his career.

During Currie's absence, the versatile Trevor Cherry stepped out of the back four to play alongside the tiny Brian Flynn in the middle of the field.

During Don Revie's stewardship he produced many players who could perform with equal distinction in several positions. Paul Madeley was one of them and he has played for England and Leeds in defence and midfield. He has also had periods in the Leeds' side as a forward.

Madeley opened the season at right-back but later switched to the middle of the defence to fill in for Cherry. The other centre-back is, of course, Paul Hart, a £330,000 signing from Blackpool last season as replacement for Gordon McQueen.

The switch was good news for young Byron Stevenson, a Welsh youth international, for it enabled him to return to First Division duty in the right-back position. Frankie Gray plays on the opposite flank.

Brother Eddie Gray opened the season in the forward line but dropped out after a few matches.

Leeds have two Scottish international goalkeepers on their staff and David Harvey is currently the number one choice. But David Stewart has deputised superbly in the past and has already done so again this season.

A 2-2 draw at Arsenal saw Leeds off to a good start to the season but they were then beaten 2-3 at home by Manchester United. They touched something like their true form when crushing Wolves 3-0 at Elland Road and Chelsea by a similar margin in London.

Then they went down 0-3 at Manchester City, lost 1-2 at home to Tottenham and drew 0-0 at Coventry.

This left them rather lower in the table than we have been accustomed to seeing Leeds in recent times though, of course, the new manager probably sees this period as a transitional one. Once he has fully assessed the capabilities of his reserve team we may see one or two changes and, possibly, new signings in the transfer market.

LEEDS UNITED

Mr. Stein was in consultation with Derby over the possibility of signing Republic of Ireland international mid-field man Gerry Daly but swiftly withdrew when the apparent asking price of £300,000-plus was suddenly increased to £400,000.

His interest in Daly, however, did indicate that Mr. Stein feels he is in need of one or two new men.

It takes any manager time to assemble a winning team and that's why Elland Road fans are hoping so desperately that Mr. Stein is not tempted at last to take over as Scotland's manager.

His was the obvious name mentioned when Ally MacLeod retired and, though he has twice in the past turned down the opportunity to manage Scotland, his reaction this time was: "If Scotland are interested then they must approach Leeds through the normal channels."

At the time of going to press the Scottish F.A. had approached Leeds and the Board was meeting to consider the matter.

DAVID HARVEY (Goalkeeper). David has been Leeds' goalkeeper for most of the past six years after spending almost a decade in the reserves as the patient understudy to Gary Sprake. However, the wait proved well worth while for, shortly after settling down to regular First Division football, he was picked for Scotland. He now has 16 caps.

BYRON STEVENSON (Defender). Byron made his Leeds' debut in 1974/75 and he is now playing regularly in the side for the first time. He has played in every Welsh under-21 international for the past two seasons.

PAUL HART (Defender). Paul joined Leeds from Blackpool for £330,000 last season and has now taken over from Gordon McQueen in the centre of the defence. He played his first League football for Stockport in 1970/71. Blackpool signed him for £25,000 in 1973.

PAUL MADELEY (Defender). Paul is one of Leeds' most versatile players, though he has settled down now as a fixture in the centre of the defence. He has played in defence and midfield for England and has 24 international caps to his credit. Paul has been a regular member of Leeds' side since 1966.

FRANKIE GRAY (Defender). Frankie originally played outside-left, the same position as his brother Eddie. But he found his best place at left-back and has been a fixture in the Leeds' side for four years. He has also gained a Scottish international cap.

TREVOR CHERRY (Defender/Midfield). Trevor is probably one of the country's most under-rated players, rarely being given credit for his all-round talents that enable him to play exceedingly well either in defence or midfield at both club and international level. He began as a left-back with Huddersfield Town, making his League debut in 1967. Leeds paid £100,000 for him in 1972 and now he is a regular member of the England team.

JOHN HAWLEY (Forward). John joined Leeds from Hull City for £180,000 during the recent close-season. He was discovered by Hull and made his first League appearances for the Tigers in 1972/73.

EDDIE GRAY (Midfield). Eddie was capped for Scotland on 12 occasions and has been in the Leeds' side since 1966, apart from a period five years ago when it was feared his career might have been ended by injury. Happily he made a full recovery and is still sparkling on the wing.

CARL HARRIS (Midfield). Carl became a Welsh international before he had gained a regular place in the Leeds' side. Though he made his Leeds' bow in a couple of matches in 1974/75 he only last season began to hold a regular place. This didn't prevent him playing twice for Wales in 1975/76 and he now has 6 caps.

RAY HANKIN (Forward). Ray enjoyed his best season so far last term when he was Leeds' top scorer with 21 goals. A former England youth and under-23 international, Ray developed with Burnley and was transferred to Leeds for £180,000 two seasons ago.

BRIAN FLYNN (Midfield). Brian may be the tiniest player in the Football League but he is certainly not lacking in creative skills — the sort that persuaded Leeds to pay Burnley £175,000 for his transfer last season. Brian was drafted into the Burnley side in 1974 and within a year was in the Welsh team. He is now an established member of the Wales' team, with 26 caps.

ARTHUR GRAHAM (Forward). Arthur joined Leeds from Aberdeen in a £120,000 deal in 1977. A Scottish full and under-23 international, Arthur had been a member of Aberdeen's side for eight years and in 1974/75 he was their leading scorer. He scored 12 goals for Leeds last season — including an incredible six-minute hat-trick in their 3-2 win at Birmingham.

PETER LORIMER (Forward). A one-time winger with the hottest shot in football, Peter reverted to midfield, though he has been back in attack this season. Introduced to the Leeds' side in 1965, he has on three occasions been their leading scorer and has been part of their many honours winning teams of modern times and has also played for Scotland on 21 occasions.

With the Juniors

Results have been mixed for the 'B' team playing in the First Division of the Lancashire League.

Playing against a very strong Manchester United side our youngsters put up a very good performance before going down in the end 3-0.

Pleasing note in this match was the form of young triallist Steve Evans from Glasgow. He has agreed to join us on leaving school at Christmas and has been sought after by many Scottish and England clubs who obviously like his style of play as a striker.

On Saturday, we visited Port Vale reserves and again lost 3-0 against an experienced side. Due to calls at more senior level, we had to "blod" a number of young players, all of them coped adequately with Keith Owen showing up particularly well.

Chief scout Jim Conway is still looking for accommodation for young players in the Bolton area. Many of these youngsters, who come from all over the country have left their home environment for the first time and it is important that they are looked after properly.

Anyone interested in providing this sort of accommodation can ring Jim at Burnden on Bolton 389200 or make a personal visit to the ground where he will be happy to have a chat.

The youth team have been drawn at Oldham in the first round of the LFA Youth Cup — a date has still to be fixed. If they win they are at Tranmere in the second round.

Fullback Terry Pashley sufficiently impressed Blackpool during a month's loan to persuade the Seaside to pay £30,000 to sign him permanently from Burnley.

Tommy Docherty's wheeling and dealing has gone on apace at Derby County. Only a week after Colin Todd moved to Everton for over £300,000, he sold winger Gerry Ryan to Brighton for £80,000.

Ryan cost the Rams £40,000 from Irish club Bohemians only 12 months ago, so that represents another handsome profit to add to the Todd surplus.

Blackpool made a profit of more than £77,000 in the 15 months up to the end of July despite being relegated to the Third Division for the first time in the club's history.

The profit stemmed from a £244,000 surplus on transfers and the accounts don't include the £325,000 they got from Everton for Irish striker Micky Walsh in August.

Gillingham paid Southampton £30,000 for defender John Sharpe after he had completed a month's loan with the club.

Oxford United have signed Gordon Hodgson, Mansfield Town's 25 year old skipper and midfield player for a fee of £30,000.

Switch for BBC Radio 2

Football fans at grounds all over Britain tune their transistors to BBC Radio's popular 'Sport on 2' programme every Saturday afternoon during the soccer season.

On November 23rd a new international frequency agreement comes into effect and Radio 2, (like Radio 1, Radio 3 and Radio 4), will move to a new position on your radio dial.

The sports service provided by Local Radio stations remains the same. But in future Radio 2 football fans will have to change to new wavelengths.

From November 23rd, SPORT on 2 moves from 1500m long wave to 433m/693kHz and 330m/909kHz medium wave.

Try both frequencies to see which gives you better reception in your area. The vhf positions for Radio 2 remain the same, between 88 and 91MHz.

The fourth annual Bolton football programme fair will be held in the Executive Club, Burnden Park, tomorrow from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.
